RANCH HORSE WESTERN PLEASURE: It's called ranch pleasure. The horses should not perform the gaits as they do in traditional western pleasure classes. They should be presented in a more forward-moving style. "Hoof polish and tail extensions are not allowed, and silver on saddles and bridles is discouraged. We are looking for a horse you would ride on the ranch doing chores". This class may be judged on tack and attire.*

CROSS OVERS: Any horse can be ridden by more than one rider in a pattern class. A rider may ride more than one horse in a class. Classes that are judged on the horse (halter, novice horse, green horse) may have different handlers. Classes judged on the person, different horses may be used. However, we limit the number of classes that one horse can compete in to 15 in one day, for the good of the horse.

DRESS/GEAR: This is a casual show; however, riders will be expected to dress in appropriate Western or English riding attire that is comfortable and safe. No sweats, tank tops, t-shirts, tennis shoes, flip-flops, etc. are permitted. Horse tack needs to be well maintained and appropriate for the discipline; and at the discretion of the rider, it can either be everyday tack, or show quality. Dress for safety, boots with a heel and helmets are strongly suggested.

Jumping classes require helmet and boots. THE JUDGE WILL ONLY JUDGE ON PERFORMANCE AND QUALITY.  Exception will be Ranch Horse Western Pleasure.*

LAMENESS: The Board of the Giddyup Open Horse Club has taken a stand on the issue of lameness. Obvious lameness shall be cause for disqualification. If lameness is observable at the trot, marked nodding, hitching or shortened stride, minimal weight bearing, this horse will be excused from the class or not placed.

SHOW FEE AND MEMBERSHIP REFUNDS: For a participant of a show who has been dismissed and/or disqualified for any reason, their show fees and any membership fees will not be refunded. If a show is canceled due to weather, prior to the show beginning, all show fees will be refunded either by cash on the show day, or by check within 5 working days. No annual membership fees will be refunded due to a canceled show. If a show has started but is canceled prior to completion due to an unforeseen event such as weather, etc., all results completed will remain, and the remaining show schedule may be rescheduled. Class show fees will be refunded for a partially canceled show; however, the arena fees are non-refundable, as well as membership fees.
